"PROPS AND THE SPIRITS"

Pen and Ink Vaudeville by Earl Hurd

OCT -1 1925

Reul

This animated cartoon comedy is one that will surely receive attention and like all others of this series it abounds with fast action and laughs.

"Props", the all-round handy man of the vaudeville theatre, is taken in tow as an assistant by the "acts". First the "Five Flying Dumbbells" use him as strong man in their acrobatic act. They could not possibly have secured a more dumb accomplice, and after considerable mauling he quits.

The high spot of the comedy is reached when "Props" is shanghied into helping the professor and his great spirit medium "Well Done". Then follows a burlesque on the spirit manifestations made famous by Oliver Lodge and Conan Doyle.

Instead of helping "Props" proves a hindrance, and he gets "egoplastered" with a shower of eggs after helping the medium to produce the manifestations called "ectoplasms".

The utilisation of the vaudeville performance idea in these animated cartoon comedies makes them novelties that lend variety to any program.
